

NACA Guest Speakers

Ron Bishop

Ron is the founder of SCORE International. SCORE takes thousands of people each year on overseas missions' trips. Ron coached basketball at Tennessee Temple University in the 1980's where he won 4 national championships. Today he travels the globe sharing the gospel.

John Bramlett

John played seven seasons in the NFL as an All-Pro linebacker. He was the runner-up "Rookie of the Year" behind Joe Namath. John travels and presents the gospel to NFL chapels and athletes all over the country.

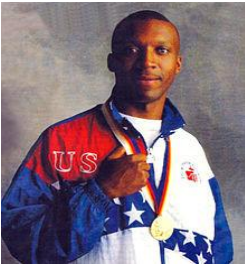

R.V. Brown

RV is the founder of Outreach to America's Youth. He is an evangelist with the Billy Graham Association and a frequent speaker for college football chapels and high school assemblies.

Bruce Crevier

Bruce holds the record in the Guinness Book of Records for spinning 21 basketball at one time and one basketball for over twenty-four hours straight. He and his family perform for NBA half-time shows and Bruce shares the gospel both home and abroad using basketball as his platform.

Joe DeLoach

Joe won the gold medal in 400 meter race in the Olympic games in Barcelona giving Carl Lewis his only silver. Joe is popular youth speaker.

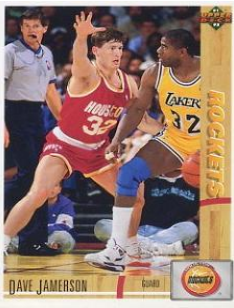

Tony Eubanks

Tony is the founder of Two-a-Day Ministries. He is also the chaplain for the Clemson football program.

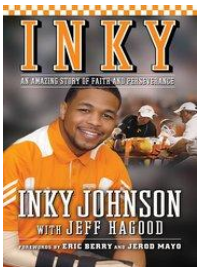

Randy Hogue

Randy is a youth evangelist who shares the gospel both home and abroad.

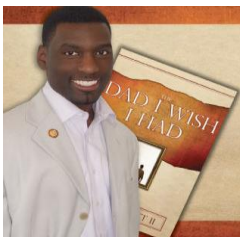

Dave Jamerson

Dave had a successful career in the NBA playing for the Houston Rockets. Today he is an associate pastor in Indianapolis.

Inky Johnson

Inky played for the Tennessee Volunteer football team and suffered a career ending injury against Air Force his junior year. Today he has a ministry to troubled youth in Atlanta.

Freddie Scott

Freddie was a standout at Penn State and then enjoyed four years in the NFL. He recently authored the book "The Dad I Wish I Had."

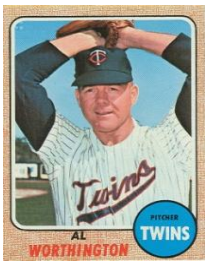

Randy Sheherd

Randy is the co-founder of Crossfire Ministries. Crossfire plays collegiate exhibition games and also travels overseas. Randy has a popular basketball camp in Asheville, NC, and travels and speaks home and abroad.

Joe Smith

Joe is the manager of the Olympic boxing team and the founder of “Jabbing for Jesus” a boxing ministry to the youth of Chattanooga, TN.

Al Worthington

Al is a member of the MLB Hall of Fame and the Minnesota Twins Hall of Fame. He coached collegiately at Liberty University.